Dream Makers Youth Foundation Teams Up with WNBA's Atlanta Dream for its 11th Annual Celebrity Wheelchair Basketball Jam

Atlanta, GA - Dream Makers Youth Foundation (DMYF) has teamed up with The Atlanta Dream for the third year in a row to host its 11th annual Celebrity Wheelchair Basketball Jam, scheduled for Sunday, August 16th at Philips Arena, right after the Dream/Sun game.

Dream Makers Youth Foundation's Celebrity Wheelchair Basketball Jam is a fast-paced, competitive game of wheelchair basketball where celebrities play wheelchair basketball for a cause, with and against disabled athletes. Participating celebrities thus far include: Paralympian Gavin Cloy, Former NFL players Stevie Baggs, Rennie Curran & Jamal Lewis, Rapper & Producer Pastor Troy, Rapper Bone Crusher, Gospel artist Edward Long, Radio personality L-Breezy, Model Nia Moore, Former ABA basketball player Willie Long, members of TITANIUM out of New Zealand, and celebrity trainers Ray Copney & John Lewis!!!

In addition to the Jam, there will be raffle prizes & giveaways, a musical performance by the group TITANIUM out of New Zealand, and MORE!!!

The purpose of the event is to encourage our community to focus on the ABILITIES of the disabled, rather than their conditions. Tickets are only $20 and includes admission to both The Atlanta Dream game and the Jam; proceeds will help DMYF provide opportunities for the children they serve to stay active and live healthy lifestyles.

Corporate sponsors include: Cobb EMC, The Wine Cellars, and Georgia Power.

For more information, to purchase tickets, or to become a sponsor and receive exposure in front of an estimated crowd of 7,000 – 8,000 Atlanta Dream fans, please visit www.dmyf.info or contact Nikki Wilson @ 678-398-6693 or info@dmyf.info.
